INTRODUCTION

Why the King James 1611 book?

The purpose of this introduction is very specific, and that is to show irrefutably, with mathematical proof, along with undeniable evidence, that there is a book that is authored by none other than the creator of everything... whom most people describe as ...GOD.

I'd like you to try to forget everything you've ever heard about God or religion or Christianity, and with an open mind, review the evidence, and you will have to come to some conclusions and that the author has some amazing attributes:

1. He knows the future perfectly, as well as he knows the past in the present
2. He knew all about the English language before it ever existed
3. He had to work with individual people and large groups of people all the way to entire nations, and every type and size of group in between (armies, court systems, cultures,..) To effectively control the outcome eventually of the English language ...
4. The invention of the modern computer would be necessary for any of us to have ever discovered the infinite wisdom and knowledge and capabilities of the author, will be demonstrated shortly
5. The author will show that he can create mountains in the futures and give you the exact location and height that he will make that mountain be
6. The author will show that he causes islands to be in specific location for his divine purposes
7. The author will show that he can cause those islands to be inhabited by enough people to form cities
8. The author will show that he knew that in the future some people would have another measuring system, the metric system, and that England would use that system... before England existed...
9. The author will show that he exists outside of time, specifically by predicting specific events, thousands of years before they would come to pass exactly as he stated... These are called prophecies, and the hundreds of predictions that came to pass show through statistical probability that it is impossible that these events happened with his for knowledge, and that the implication is, he caused these things to happen the way that he predicted as well

It is clear why God chose the English language to be the language for his official book to mankind... it is in this age of the computer, the official or unofficial global language... And it is a language that didn't even exist until a few hundred years ago... And it is a language that has originated from many other languages contributions...

What about other books or documents that some people claim to be the real word of God?

Well, God knew that he would have those objections and his solution to remove. All doubt was to put his “signature” on one document that would eliminate all confusion and reveal which document was really from him. No other book will reveal the infinite wisdom and knowledge and capabilities of God than the Bible, the King James version, which was first published in 1611.

What about all the other translations?

There have been hundreds of translations of the Bible in English, and they are all mostly good and generally have the same basic message... but there is only one that can be taken down to the letter, and that will be proven to be only the 1611 king James Bible.

There are a lot of other questions that I have some opinions on and answers for, but the bottom line is once you review the material and come to the conclusion that this 1611 book is the actual word of God and you can believe it precisely to the letter, then, basically, you could reverse engineer this to answer all the other questions, based on that fact, as a foundation, by which you compare all other questions.

The Bible was originally written in Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek... And one of the most common objections people have about whether they could believe the Bible, literally after thousands of years and hundreds of translations, Is the question

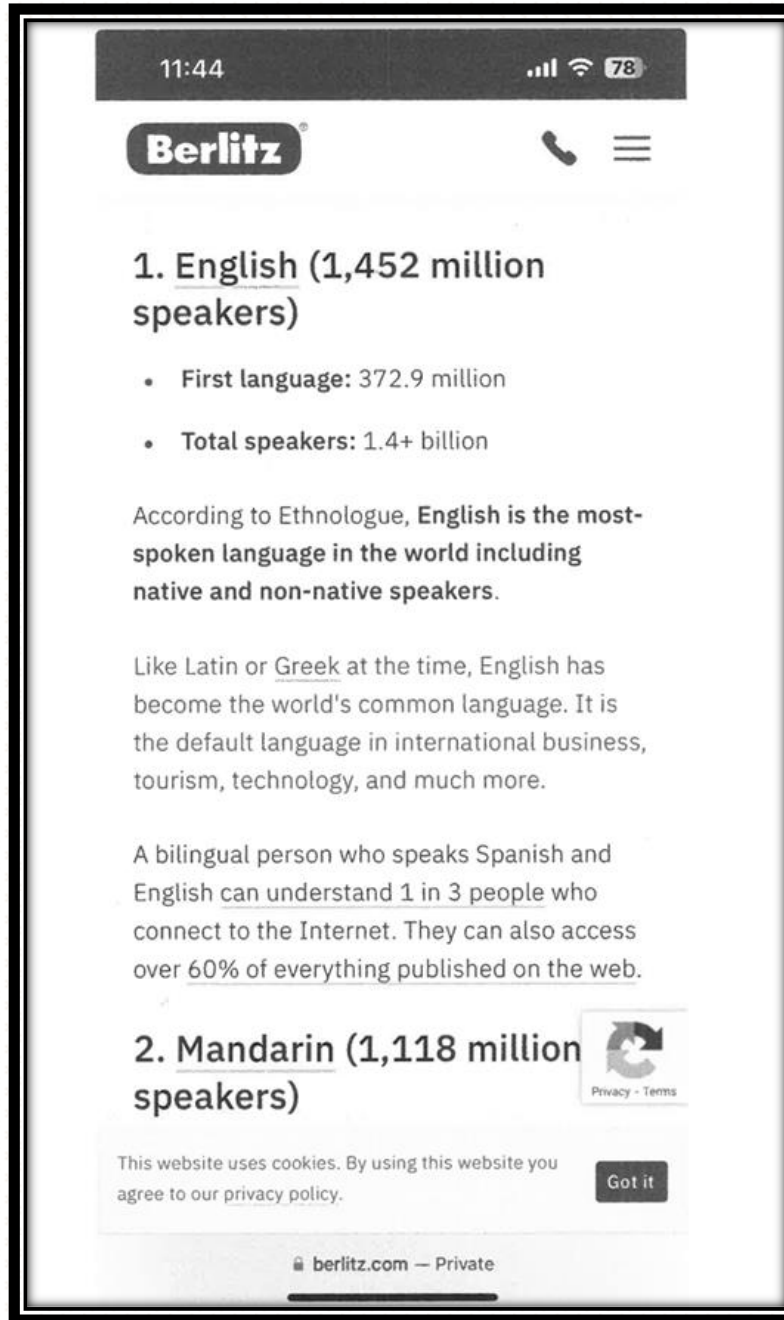

“How do we know that this book hasn’t been changed after all this time by all these people? Especially if it’s not even in the original language that it was written in?”

Well, God not only will prove through the computer analysis of the 1611 book that he preserved it, he did it with all kinds of amazing ways that boggle the imagination... He used people that likely didn’t even know what they were doing, and developed an entirely new language, English, that didn’t even exist when the original scrolls that the Bible comes from were written... And then he proves that the document is super naturally accurate by all of the things we're going to show from the computer analysis...

Also, when it comes to the English language, He had to work with all of the wars and conflicts that were instrumental in the development of the English language, like when the Vikings invaded England, As well as the Anglos and the Saxons and the Jutes invaded from Germany... And the time when the French ruled England... all of these events and decisions. Large groups of people contributed to the event rise of the language of English, to eventually become the global language of earth.

More people speak English today, then any other language (This is including countries where English is not their first language)

The English language is an alphanumeric language, meaning that the letters have corresponding numerical values. Ordinal values of the English language would be to give a value of one to the letter A, two to the letter B, 32 the letter C, and so on until you get to giving the letter Z the value of 26.

Reverse or value would be the same thing but backwards, so Z would be the number one, and a would be the number 26. If you take the first verse of the Bible and calculate its value by adding up the numerical values of the letters using the reverse ordinal system, they add up to the number 777.

As we know seven is God's number universally accepted (Seven days of the week, ...) The odds that this happened, coincidentally or accidentally is beyond astronomical.

So Jesus, Who is called “the Word of God” in the King James Bible Declares he is the Alpha and the Omega (first and last letter of the English alphabet), The beginning and the end the first and the last. So a lot of these patterns that are being shown here have to do with the beginning and the end of the Bible... just something to keep in mind as you read through this.

Jesus, who is the Word of God said:

Revelation 22:13

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Chapter 5

1 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: 3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. 4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life. 5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: 7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:.) 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. 10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences. 12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. 14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead: 15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again. 16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. 17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 18 And all things are of God, who hath

Matthew 18:9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

This page is fascinating in that it shows that the number 634 which is how many thousands of words and texts there are in the old Testament is exactly the number of times that Moses name occurs in the Old Testament. It's boggling.

Page 29D is also mind-boggling because the number of times that Christ shows up in the Bible is 555 which is exactly the second part of the Old Testament total 634,555!

This page also shows that the name Jesus occurs exactly 983 times in the Bible, which is the second part of the total of the New Testament count of words and text 188,983!

Then to further blow our minds, the words, book and lamb both show up 188 times in the Bible, And then then page 29E shows that the word life occurs exactly 188 times in the New Testament!

This page shows that the term lambs book of life shows all three words that occur 188 times in the previous two pages show up in the exact same verse revelations 20:12! God is just demonstrating his amazing capabilities and showing that nothing is too hard for him!

Triangular number 17, With this illustration showing that the 17 layers total 153... Which is a number representing the harvest of mankind souls... the word makes a comparison of human souls to fish and fishing ... As will be further detailed shortly

This page shows that Galatians 2:7 (the number 27 shows up again) says that the gospel (which is connected to the 153 fishes) was given to Paul for the uncircumcised heathen and to Peter for the Jews.

Galatians 2:7

But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto peter;

Paul was given the commission of the gospel to the uncircumcised (gentiles),

Peter the gospel of the circumcised (Jews)

Very interesting. This page shows that the word "liberty" which is a reference to the grace we have in the New Testament or our new covenant. Occurs 27 times in the Bible, And the word "bondage" which refers to our lives under the law or the Old Testament occurs 39 times in the Bible.. the exact number of books in the Old Testament... so of course, adding together 27 and 39 you come up with 66 again, referring to the Bible.

As previously shown the numbers, 17 and 27 are very significant, with connections directly to the first and the last verses of the Bible... The 777th chapter of the Bible is Jeremiah 32, and almost in a humorous way in the 17th verse and in the 27th verse it's kind of like the prophet declares that God has made heaven and earth, and "there is nothing too hard for you!" And then in verse 27 the Lord answers and said I am the God of all flesh and "is nothing too hard for me?" (he is kind of showing and demonstrating his capability by having all these numbers come together 777, 17, 27...)

Chapter 777 of the bible

Jeremiah 32

17 Ah Lord GOD! Behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee:

27 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

This page further goes on to show that Jeremiah 32 has exactly 44 verses (connecting it back to the first and last verses of the entire Bible) ... and $17 + 27 = 44$...

This page shows again the significance of the two numbers connected to the first and last verses of the Bible 17 and 27...gen 7:11 shows that the beginning of the Flood from Noah and the ark started on the 17th day of the second month, and gen 8:14 shows that the end of the flood was on the 27th day of the second month... These two verses are the first mentioned in the Bible of the number 17 and 27 and combined to be connected to God's judgment of the Earth

Gen 7:11

In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month. The same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

Gen 8:14

27

And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

Genesis 7:11 and Genesis 8:14 are the first mention in the bible of the number 17 and 27, and they are mentioned in the verses that give the beginning and

of the Flood of Noah, Gods judgment of the earth.

James I (r. 1603-1625)

Here is another amazing sign that God gives us to point to the king James 1611 Bible being his endorsed message to mankind... in Acts 16:11, there is a mountain on an island named Samothracia that is mentioned in this verse, and this is history, tells us was used to help ships navigate in that area, and mountains highest elevation is exactly 1,611 meters high!

What's amazing about these three pages is that there are three islands mentioned, and God describes a "straight course" and if you make a straight course line based on the position of those islands, they point exactly and precisely to London England, where the king James 1611 Bible was published! And of course, God demonstrates his capabilities because he created each of those places before they could ever be named and position precisely where they are so that they would point as this page show where he wanted to emphasize that location!

This page shows that in the island of Troas mentioned in acts 16:11 is a river, and according to Wikipedia, that river has a base size of exactly 77 km², another fingerprint of God's involvement in creating this river precisely, with his number just showing his fingerprint and creating the river that way.

The name James has an interesting history, including the fact that it's actually a translation of another super common "J" name for boys: Jacob. In fact, the name James means the same exact thing as Jacob—"supplanter" or substitute—and comes from the original Hebrew word for Jacob. 2. Psalm 117, right before Psalm 118, is the shortest chapter in the bible.
3. Psalm 119, right after Psalm 118, is the longest chapter in the bible.
4. The Bible has 594 chapters before Psalm 118 and 594 chapters after Psalm 118.
5. If you add up all the chapters except Psalm 118, you get a total of 1188 chapters. (Psalm 118, 1188 chapters...see the resemblance?)
6. Plus, if you split the number 1188 into 118 and 8, you get 118:8. Well, it just so happens that Psalm 118:8 is the very middle verse of the entire bible.
7. Also, Shouldn't the middle verse of the whole bible bring the whole bible into the main theme? Well, it does.

It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man.

[Psalm 118:8]

The ancient Hebrew alphabet has 22 letters (from Alef to Tav). The earliest characters originally consisted of symbols (first column), from which the today's digital signs originated. Five of them have special end forms (e.g., Kaph). The letters Alef (1) and Ayin (16) have a sound that does not occur in our language, so their pronunciation is in brackets. Although the Syriac (Syr; Aramaic) language is similar, it has produced completely new letters over the centuries (see Peshitta).

The ancient Greek alphabet has 27 letters. In addition to the 24 main letters (from Alpha to Omega) in which the NT was written, there were 3 more characters in the early form of the Greek alphabet; i.e. in the alphabetic ("Milesian") system of Greek numerals: Digamma (Ϝ, ϝ; [w]; since the Middle Ages Stigma in the appearance of a snake: Ϛ, ϛ; NV 6), Qoppa (NV 90) and Sampi (NV 900). Both alphabets have together 22+27=49 (7x7) letters. The whole Bible (OT and NT) was written on 22+27=49 (7x7) scrolls.

Abbreviations: (OV): Ordinal value, the order of the letters in the alphabet. (NV): numerical value (Gematria = Interpretation of words by numbers). (P): Pronunciation or Transcription. The letters may look different in some sources because they are often shown in multiple fonts, e.g. Arial (ARL) or Times New Roman (TNR). In Greek, there are uppercase or lowercase letters.

This page shows amazingly that the number for Pi (3.14...) is embedded in the first verse of the Bible in Hebrew... this number is very precise and very important in mathematics and this could not be by accident.

This page shows that in the Greek language in the other creation verse John 1:1, the important math number of “e” is embedded in the Greek language, absolutely could not be by accident again...

The number e is a mathematical constant approximately equal to 2.71828 that can be characterized in many ways. It is the base of the natural logarithm function. It is the limit of $(1 + \frac{1}{n})^n$ as n tends to infinity, an expression that arises in the computation of compound interest. It is the value at 1 of the (natural) exponential function, commonly denoted e^x . It is also the sum of the infinite series

This page shows that the important math number Pi is built into the Hebrew and Greek words for Jesus Christ

Here are the Hebrew/Greek numerical values of "JESUS CHRIST":

Hebrew "JESUS CHRIST" (391 + 363) = 754

Greek "JESUS CHRIST" (888 + 1480) = 2368

These two values are united through Pi. Observe that a CIRCLE with a circumference of 2368 has a diameter of 754 (Pi = The ratio between the circumference/diameter of a CIRCLE):

ΙΗΣΟΥΣ ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ
JESUS CHRIST
2368

יהושע המשיח
754

$$\frac{2368}{754} = 3.14....$$

Then in the last chapter of Isaiah (like the Bible has 66 books, similarly Isaiah has 66 chapters), Isaiah 66:7-9 These verses describe the coming of Jesus Christ bringing in the new covenant to save mankind, and those exact same for numbers are built into that verse connecting it to the first verse in the Bible...777, 888, 999, and 999!

Isaiah 66:7-9

Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8Who hath heard such a thing? Who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? Saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? Saith thy God

So, the 1st verse in the Bible, Genesis 1:1 has seven words in Hebrew. There is a little word with 2 letters in the middle, with 3 words to the right and 3 words to the left of the little middle word, so there is a pattern of "313" ... it's symmetrical and it stands out and we are meant to notice that pattern... in the book of Isaiah there are exactly 16,931 words in Hebrew... 16,931 is a prime number. It is invisible. It is 1953rd number.... And it equals One

I included all of my comments for the remaining pages to add to the original document $31 \times 3 \times 7 \times 3$ the pattern seems to be there by design 313 and 373

The history of mathematics deals with the origin of discoveries in mathematics and the mathematical methods and notation of the past. Before the modern age and the worldwide spread of knowledge, written examples of new mathematical developments have come to light only in a few locales. From 3000 BC the Mesopotamian states of Sumer, Akkad and Assyria, followed closely by Ancient Egypt and the Levantine state of Ebla began using arithmetic, algebra and geometry for purposes of taxation, commerce, trade and also in the patterns in nature, the field of astronomy and to record time and formulate calendars.

This page shows the connection between God's word and the actual physical creation of matter... Genesis 11 and John 11 are the two verses in the Bible that describe the creation of everything... those two verses have a gematria total of 2701 and 3627 respectively...2701 is the sum of the protons of the first 73 elements, and 3627 is the sum of the neutrons in the first 73 elements!

This page shows that the total number of Hebrew words from genesis to the end of the book of Isaiah added to the number of Greek words in the entire New Testament equal 380,835... showing the connection between the numeric value of "logos" and the two numbers that appear over and over again in genesis 1:1, 373 and 313

WORD" (LOGOS) yields the concatenation of the

Genesis 1:1 Prime Factors:

Genesis 1:1 = 2701 = 37 × 73

2701 + 1072 = 3773

Standard Greek "WORD" (LOGOS) = 373

$$\begin{aligned}
& 243,115 \text{ Hebrew words Genesis to end of Isaiah} \\
+ & 137,720 \text{ Greek words in the New Testament} \\
= & 380,835 \text{ or } 5 \times 3 \times 7 \times 3 \times 31 \times 3 \times 13
\end{aligned}$$

And that breaks down to $5 \times 3 \times 7 \times 3 \times 31 \times 3 \times 13$. $3 \ 7 \ 3$ (the numeric value of LOGOS). And the
